WELCOME HOME! Live, Love, Illuminate the Dream

War of the Rams XII stands as a testament to the passion, dedication, and unity that define our community. What began as a modest gathering has evolved into a vibrant, large-scale event that draws participants from across the realm. This transformation did not happen overnight—it was carefully built by the hands, hearts, and efforts of those who believe in what we create together.

For the past year, volunteers have poured their energy into planning, crafting, coordinating, and dreaming. Every detail, from the battlefield to the feast hall, is shaped by people who give freely of their time. Travel-weary adventurers, seasoned fighters, artisans, families, and first-time visitors all bring their own spark, weaving together the tapestry that makes this celebration extraordinary.

As we gather once again, we are not merely attending an event—we are continuing a legacy. One defined by camaraderie, shared history, and a spirit of service that endures year after year.

To each of you who has traveled, contributed, or chosen to spend your time with us: your presence gives this gathering its soul. May this year's War of the Rams bring laughter, triumph, friendship, and unforgettable memories.

*In gratitude and service,
Gabrielle de Lacy & Meurik the Humble
Event Stewards, War of the Rams XII*

To the populace of Bordermarch, our deepest gratitude for the steadfast support and tireless hearts you have shown us throughout these past two years of our reign. Serving as your Baron and Baroness has been an honor and experience we are so grateful for. Though we step aside, we will not wander far, and we take great comfort knowing the Barony rests now in capable hands.

HE Edric Haldyn and HE Tanne Haldyn
